how to celebrate

Random Acts of Poetry Day is about painting poetry in the public square, either literally or figuratively. This little book will give you ten ideas for how to do that.

Feel like sharing your act pics? Use the hashtag #raopoetryday.

Write a poem on a whiteboard
